2022 Derby Rules

- Read All Rules Carefully – Avoid Disqualification!!!

There will be no official derby check-in. Fishing may begin at sunrise and continue until the scales close.

Winners need NOT be present to claim all prizes. Cash prizes can be mailed at the request of the winner.

1. The Resurrection Salmon Derby, with weigh-in locations in Anacortes, Friday Harbor and Bellingham will be held August 19th and 20th, 2022. Fishing will begin at sunrise on Friday and Saturday and contestants may be underway before that time.
2. Weigh in times will be 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. on Friday and 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. on Saturday. You must be in line to weigh your fish by 5:00 p.m. and weigh your fish the same day they were caught to be eligible for prizes. Each team of anglers should present fish for weigh-in at the same time. Fish shall be transported to the weigh-in site whole and un-gutted. You may bleed your fish if you choose to. Legal Silver Salmon over 10 lbs may be weighed. Derby official may choose to open the weigh in station early for safety reasons such as inclement weather.
3. Participants derby ticket must be presented at the weigh in when weighing in a fish.
4. Prizes shall be awarded for largest salmon by weight. Derby officials shall conduct weigh-ins at Cap Sante Marina in Anacortes the Port of Friday Harbor and Bellingham Marina. Three scales will be calibrated prior to the start of the derby. All weights from any of the scales shall be considered final and represent the official weight to determine winners for the derby. Each angler presenting their fish for weighing also must present their Derby ticket and shall at the request of derby officials sign an affidavit attesting that the fish was caught in compliance with state and Derby rules and regulations. Derby officials may ask to examine the Derby tickets and catch record cards of all occupants of the angler's boat.
5. Derby tickets shall cost $75.00 per individual. There is NO limit to the number of derby participants in each boat. Every individual on-board a vessel fishing in the derby must be entered in the derby. A limited number of tickets will be made available for sale to the public. There shall be no refunds. This is an all-weather Derby. Participants are expected to use reasonable judgment and common sense with respect to weather and/or sea conditions.
6. Each angler must have a valid WDFW license and catch record card and their Derby ticket in his or her possession while participating in the Derby. Each contestant must play and weigh-in his or her own fish.
7. Derby participants may fish only in Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife Marine Area 6 and 7. All fishing must be done in compliance with Washington fishing rules and regulations.
8. It is requested that each vessel prominently display the American flag in honor of our veterans, past and present. This recognition is a long-standing tradition of the Resurrection Salmon Derby. Thank you!
9. An individual may only win one of the top cash prizes for largest silver salmon. Prizes will be offered in descending order for heaviest salmon. In the event of identical official weights, the first fish weighed will have priority for the higher prize.

10. The Derby judges shall consist of three persons and up to four alternates. Any dispute concerning enforcement of the Derby rules or procedures shall be settled by majority vote of the judges. There will be no appeal of their decision. Judges are not eligible to win cash derby prizes. Alternate Judges may compete for Derby prizes, however, if an alternate acts as a judge in any respect, that person shall abstain from competing for derby cash prizes.
11. Derby officials may direct that a fish be gutted after weighing and/or that it be examined by a fishery biologist or other expert, at the judges' discretion. Anglers must initial the weigh-in report immediately upon the fish being weighed. All fish entered in the derby shall remain the property of the Fidalgo-San Juan Islands Chapter of PSA until the conclusion of the awards ceremony, or longer if necessary, in the opinion of a majority of the derby judges.
12. Derby tickets are only available on line. One person may purchase tickets for other contestants; in that event the person buying the ticket shall be deemed to agree to these rules on behalf of the other contestant(s) for whom the tickets were bought. Anyone purchasing a ticket for someone else shall complete the registration form in the other person's name.
13. Any violation of Derby rules and/or WDFW fishing regulations and/or anyone receiving a citation, shall subject a violator and entire boat to disqualification. Persons observing possible rules violations are required to submit a written protest to the judges no later than 5:00 PM on Saturday August 20th, 2022.
14. Prize recipients are responsible for payment of any taxes that might be owed on a particular prize. All prizes shall be final at the time of award.
15. These rules may be changed by Derby officials at any time prior to the beginning of the first day of the Derby.

Any changes to these rules and any questions concerning these rules will be posted prior to the start of the derby. Derby participants agree to hold harmless the Fidalgo-San Juan Islands Chapter of the Puget Sound Anglers, derby officials, judges, sponsors, and/or their respective officers, agents, servants and employees from any demands, claims, and/or liabilities of any kind or nature from and for any injuries or damages of any kind that participants might sustain as a result of participation in the derby, including the awards ceremony. PLEASE DO NOT DRINK AND DRIVE. Derby officials would be happy to arrange for a cab at the contestant's expense upon request.
